Chief Justice Michael K. Davis

Chief Justice of the Wyoming Supreme Court, Michael K. Davis, today announced the successful completion of its first live streamed bar admission ceremony for newly admitted members of the Wyoming State Bar.

This was a combined ceremony with the United States District Court for the District of Wyoming and the Honorable Alan B. Johnson presided over the second portion of the ceremony.

In order to maintain proper social distancing, the Court limited the ceremony to the new admittees only. Thanks to the efforts of the Wyoming Supreme Court's IT staff, the ceremony was live streamed for the benefit of family and friends who were unable to attend.
